

SEAFOOD MARKET REPORT

WEEKLY UPDATE

WEEK OF JULY 6, 2026

CONDITIONS & PRICING SUBJECT TO CHANGE

FINFISH / SHELLFISH

ATLANTIC FISH ICELANDIC COD

▲ PRICES RISING

Price increasing this week due to low quotas in Iceland and poor catch. New quotas arrive end of August.

ATLANTIC FISH SWORDFISH

▲ PRICES RISING

Nice marker and double marker swords arriving from Canada, Costa Rica, and the Gulf this week. Prices elevated on high demand.

SOUTHERN FISH MAHI

▲ PRICES HIGH

Limited fish due to Panama conservation period. Pricing stays high on 10# + fish; value in 5-10# range but fillets run small, 1-3#.

ATLANTIC FISH ATLANTIC HALIBUT

SIZES IMPROVING

Fish had trended smaller, but a good showing of larger fish lands this week. All product from Nova Scotia, Canada.

SHELLFISH LIVE LOBSTER

PRICES STABLE

Prices stabilized at higher levels. Wholesalers lean more on domestic catch as Canadian seasons wind down; Maine volumes are increasing.

ATLANTIC FISH BLACK BASS

▲ PRICES HIGH

Mediums remain soft as East Coast fish run smaller. MA season opens Wed, adding supply. Larges/Jumbos stay expensive - high prices expected all summer.

ATLANTIC FISH WILD STRIPED BASS

▲ AVAILABILITY UP

Maryland fishing strong for weeks - plenty of 2/4's and some 5/8's. MA fishing days Wed & Thu yielding large/jumbo landings.

GULF FISH SNAPPERS

▼ LANDINGS LIMITED

Very limited Gulf landings due to high winds. Caribbean Red Snapper 2-4# and 4-6#, plus 1-2# Lane Snappers available.

GREAT LAKES LAKE FISH

▼ AVAILABILITY DOWN

Last of the White Bass for the summer; about a week left of White Perch. Walleye persists a bit longer before the fresh fishery rests.

SHELLFISH SCALLOPS

PRICES STABLE

Domestic scallops holding steady in price, aside from softer product hitting auctions that doesn't meet our premium quality standard.

SALMON

WILD SALMON WILD KING SALMON

▼ PRICES EASING

Troll prices should slide down a bit by the end of this week. Fish are coming from Ketchikan and Port St. Nicholas, SE Alaska.

WILD SALMON WILD ALASKAN SOCKEYE

OPENERS LIMITED

ADF&G continues cancelling Copper River openers awaiting higher king escapement. Other districts in PWS, Cook Inlet, and SE AK are opening periodically.
